Introduction

When the church parish needs to make improvements, repairs, or new construction in projects costing $10,000 or more, the following procedures are used to secure necessary approval of the Bishop and maintain adequate safeguards for the assets of the Church.

All forms and sample documents are included in the appendices to this packet. They can also be found on the Diocese of Shreveport website at <http://www.dioshpt.org/business/construction.html>

There are two phases to requesting approval of a project: the Preliminary Request, and the Final Request.

Phase 1: Preliminary Request for Improvements/Construction

As soon as the project is considered at the parish level, the pastor should complete the Preliminary Request for Approval of Physical Plant Improvements and Construction form. The purpose of this step is to inform the bishop of what project is being considered and the estimated cost and method of financing before full planning gets underway. The diocesan bishop will use this form to gain a general understanding of the project in order to approve the request to continue planning at the parish level.

Required items for the Preliminary Request:

- 1. Preliminary Request Form (See Appendix A)
- 2. Resolution from the Parish Pastoral Council in support of the project/purchase
- 3. Latest Monthly Comparative Financials (Year-to-date vs prior year-to-date Balance sheet and year-to-date vs prior year-to-date income statement) Please note on the balance sheet the specific source that holds any funds currently on hand for the project, i.e., if a CD will be liquidated, please identify it on the balance sheet.

Once Corporate Committee has reviewed the Preliminary Request with the Bishop, the pastor will be notified in writing of the status of the request. As soon as Preliminary approval is received in writing, the pastor and parish may begin more in-depth planning and engage contractors for the purpose of finalizing costs and requirements.

In the interest of time and planning, the Diocesan Business Office makes every effort to notify pastors via email immediately upon receipt of the bishop's signed approval of the Preliminary Request. The original signed form will follow in the next business day's mail for the parish files.

The letter which accompanies the signed form will reference the details of documents which must be accurately presented with the Final Request Form.

Phase 2: Final Request for Improvements/Construction

The Final Request for Approval of Construction and Improvements will be due 30 days prior to beginning the project, and requires the inclusion of several additional related items.

Required items for the Final Request:

1. Final Request Form (See Appendix A)

2. Parish Resolution approving the project/purchase (See Appendix D)

The Parish Finance Council must submit a resolution which states their commitment to the project as recorded in the meeting minutes of the council. The Pastor serves as Secretary of the Corporation and signs the resolution. Trustees' and other council members' signatures are included on the Final Request Form, and are unnecessary on the Resolution.

It is important to have the full legal name of the parish corporation on the Resolution as it is recorded with the Secretary of State's office. If the location where the project will be implemented is a school or mission of the church, then the request must come from the parent church. The exceptions to this are the two diocesan high schools, which are operated and whose requests would be made by the principal and the School Board.

3. Copy of Construction Drawing (if applicable)

4. Copy of All Bids , notation of Approved Bid

Three bids are required on all projects and purchases costing more than $10,000.

The approved bid(s) support the total cost of the project.

Note: For purposes of insurance requirements, the approved bid does not suffice as a contract between the parish and vendor.

5. Copy of Contract to be signed (if applicable).

The selected vendor should be able to provide the pastor with a draft of the contract so that the Corporate Committee may review it before it is signed. If there is no contract to be signed for the project or purchase, please make that notation on the form.

6. Copy of Contractor's Performance Bond

Because the performance bond is a requirement for project approval, please have the contractor include cost of the bond in the original bid.

Note: If you will not be paying the contractor any money until the job is complete and to your satisfaction according to the bid, then a performance bond is unnecessary. HOWEVER, it is necessary that the pastor write a letter to this effect for the bishop's information. Such letter should be included in place of the Performance Bond when submitting the Final Request.

7. Copy of Contractor's Certificate(s) of Insurance

Lack of properly stated insurance certificates has been known to stall several projects. To ensure that the certificates are properly worded, it is strongly encouraged that the parish allow the Diocesan Business Office to assist in reviewing the insurance certificates for accuracy as they are obtained.

Insurance Requirements which must be evidenced by certificate are:

- a) General Liability: $1 million coverage per incident, $3 million aggregate
- b) Auto Liability: $1 million
- c) Workers Compensation insurance as required by law

These are standard limits that contractors purchase. There should be no problem obtaining proper certificates from professional contractors.

In addition to evidencing the proper insurance, we require that the General Liability and Auto Liability certificate(s) include an additional insured endorsement in favor of the parish, the Diocese of Shreveport, and our bishop. The reason for requiring these additional insured listings is that it protects the individual interests of the parish, the diocese and the bishop, as they are each named individually in lawsuits.

Some contracting companies are substantial enough to have all three coverages (General Liability, Auto and Workers Compensation) through one insurance broker or company. In this instance, all coverages will be evidenced on the same certificate, but the additionally insured language on the certificate will reference coverage under the General Liability and Auto policies only. This is perfectly adequate.

In the event that the contractor does not have all insurance through one broker, we will need separate certificates of insurance from each applicable broker/agent referencing the three coverages we require.

IMPORTANT: Language referencing contracts

Some insurance companies will require that a contract be in place in order to extend insurance coverage to the parish, diocese and bishop as requested. This language is usually presented on the certificate in wording similar to what follows:

“Additional insured status is afforded when required by written contract.”

Or:

“Certificate holder is listed as additionally insured with respects to general liability as required by written contract.”

The wording may vary slightly from company to company, but the most important words to note are “written contract.” The simplest solution in this instance would be to ask the insurance company to remove any reference to a written contract and still leave the additional insured endorsement. However, in consideration of their client, some underwriters are hesitant to remove the contract requirement. If the insurance company will not remove the contract reference from the insurance certificate, then the parish must engage fully in an approved written contract with the vendor/contractor. Again, please remember that a signed bid is not a contract. Bids do not typically state that the contractor will provide all insurance coverage necessary and list the customer as additionally insured, so if the insurance certificate states, “as required by written contract,” then the corresponding contract MUST REQUIRE the insurance. Otherwise, the additional insured endorsement is nullified, and the church is exposed to potential liability.

In a situation where the insurance certificate states requirement of a contract, the business office offers an approved sample contract for parish use. Contractors and vendors who do not typically use written contracts may utilize this sample contract in working with our parishes. Edits may be made to the applicable parts of the contract which will pertain to the contracting company and the job to be performed. Edits may not be made to the Indemnity and Insurance portions of the contract, other than to reference the particular church parish.

However, if the contractor provides his own contract form, it must reflect the same requirements for insurance as stated in the sample vendor agreement included with this packet. If the contract is significantly different from our sample, additional time will be needed for the contract to be reviewed by our diocesan attorneys.

A sample insurance certificate is included in Appendix B for your reference. The Diocesan Business Office is available to assist you in obtaining correct certificates, and will be more than happy to speak with the contractors and/or insurance companies on the church’s behalf at any time.

New Construction: Builders Risk Insurance

As of February 2010, important information has come to light which affects parishes and locations that may have need to plan a major construction project in the future.

The short version:

The new AIA document 201-2007 General Conditions of Contract for Construction, which are usually prepared by the architect and are the concrete basis for the contractor bids now contains a requirement that the property owner (in our case, the church parish) will provide all the insurance for the building project instead of the contractor providing it.

The result is that after the bids are accepted, our current procedures to obtain appropriate insurance and riders are already ineffective since in the bidding process we have already agreed to cover the construction ourselves. We would have to purchase enough insurance to cover the whole construction site during the project, which increases the total cost of the project.

The detailed version:

Construction companies are utilizing a revised version of the AIA document, 201-2007 General Conditions of Contract for Construction. Article 11 of this document relates to insurance requirements of the owner as a binding part of the construction agreement. It is important to understand that these requirements are outside the parameters of our current policy as they require that our church insure the contractor, subcontractors and sub-subcontractors. Through the official contract for construction, this article of the document must be amended to pass the obligation to provide Builders Risk insurance onto the contractor, noting the parish, diocese and Bishop as Additional Insureds.

The requirements for insurance on the part of the contractor must be considered in the early stages of planning prior to bid specifications being sent out, as the insurance that the chosen contractor is required to provide will be a necessary factor in the contractor's bid.

If the insurance requirement is not addressed in advance of the bid and the Builder's Risk insurance is not purchased by the contractor, the cost of the diocese purchasing a separate Builder's Risk policy will be passed on to the parish as an additional cost of the project.
